

Cloud of Unknowing

Led by Kim Nataraja

Friday 18 June 6pm to Sunday 20 June finishing with lunch

The focus of the weekend will be 'The Cloud of Unknowing' - an anonymous work of Christian mysticism written in the latter half of the 14th century which has reputedly inspired generations of mystical searchers, from John Scotus Erigena, St John of the Cross and Teilhard de Chardin

Kim Nataraja writes: "The text has untold treasures even for modern men and women. It is a superb mystical guide for those who hunger for depth and meaning in life and in prayer. During this weekend we will not only look at the lessons it contains for us trying to live a meaningful life in an age of constant surface change and uncertainty, but we will also put into practice its advice on contemplative prayer."

Kim Nataraja, has been a contemplative since her youth and is also a trained Spiritual Director. She joined The World Community for Christian Meditation in 1993 and, since 1999, has been helping Laurence Freeman OSB to guide and co-ordinate the International School.
