

Extraordinary Women

a Quiet Day
at 26 Watton Park, Bridport

on Thursday 17 June 2010
9.45am - 3.30pm

Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and find some rest. (Mark 6:31)

We have all been inspired by women at some time –maybe our mother, partner, sister, teacher. Perhaps our lives were changed by words written or spoken by, or by the example of, an extraordinary woman. Today we will look at just a handful of women who have made a difference and see what they can teach us about God and spirituality, love and faith in action.

There will be plenty of time for quiet reflection, reading and prayer - as well as materials for those wanting to use their creative skills. Coffee, a simple lunch and tea will be provided. Donations can be made on the day towards the costs of these and the expenses of the leaders.

About the leaders: Veronica Ziegler has worked locally with Christian groups of all ages. She is a member of the Quiet Gardens Trust and has a particular interest in Africa where she lived for many years. Jo O'Farrell facilitates Celtic Christian spirituality groups/events and hosts the weekly Bridport Christian Meditation Group. They both work at Good Books, the Christian bookshop in Bridport, and are happy to lead quiet days, workshops and retreats wherever they are needed.
